

Contractors State License Services Honors, Victor Perez with A Contractors Scholarship

California's Largest Contractors School Grants Full Scholarship To Build A Brighter Future For Hero Who Saved Abducted Girl

VanNuys, CA (PRWEB) October 18, 2010 -- Contractors State License Services (CSLS) granted a full scholarship to local Fresno California, hero Victor Perez, an unemployed Contractor in the hopes to build a brighter future for a Good Samaritan and hero. Victor Perez, the Fresno Construction worker put his life on the line to save an abducted 8-year-old girl last week. Victor's heroics and daring rescue has touched the heart of not only local residents to Fresno California but also the President and CEO of Contractors State License Services, also known as MakeMeAContractor.com, David Mizener.

David Mizener, CSLS' President & CEO, learned about Victor's compelling story and that he lacked a California Contractors License through the Media. "After hearing Victor's story and the request of Governor Schwarzenegger that someone give Victor a job. "I knew we could do more than simply give him a job, we could help him build a future and a business that would ultimately help him provide for his family," said David Mizener.

The Contractors Scholarship valued at over $1,500 provides full enrollment to Contractors State License Services In-School Law and Trade program which is designed to assist Contractors in passing the California Contractors License Exam. "Our 98% pass rate will provide Victor with a sense of peace knowing that he will pass the first time he sits for the Contractor's License Exam. In fact, we have helped over 120,000 Contractors just like Victor to gain their Contractors License," states Maureen Esses, License Advisor. CSLS classes offer live instruction taught by qualified and experienced instructors. The classroom setting allows for individual attention and the opportunity for classroom discussion and immediate response to questions our students may have. Program content is relevant to day-in, day-out Contractor practice and the California Contractors State License Examination such as Contractors Business Law.

Additionally, Contractors State License Services Contractors Scholarship will also cover all the State required fees associated with gaining a Contractor's License such as the California State Contractors License Application Fee, Contractor's License Fee, as well as, additional Contractor fees for requirements such as Contractor Bonding fees. "We are happy to assist such a great man with the additional cost of earning a Contractor's License. The Contractors Bonding requirement of $12,500 will be covered by CSLS as well", states David Mizener, CSLS President & CEO. "That's unbelievable," Perez said. "To become a contractor would be a dream come true."

Victor plans to pursue the General Building \(General B\) Contractors License and to attend CSLS's Fresno School Locations live class room 4 week program. The Fresno school location is one of 25 School locations throughout California for Contractors State License Services along with the Live Online programs nationwide and Home Study programs. "We are excited to assist Victor reach his goal of becoming a Licensed Contractor. We applaud Victor's first steps to building a brighter future and look forward to helping him achieve his goals", says Mary Birch District Manager.
